

CIVIL ENGINEER

Germantown, WI (pop. 20,008) is seeking a Civil Engineer with a minimum of 3-5 years relevant experience to assist the Village Engineer. The main responsibilities of this position will include design of sanitary sewer, water main, storm sewer, and roads; to coordinate and design storm drainage basins, to coordinate development and project activities; to review plans for new developments, and perform other engineering functions including but not limited to administering permits, ensuring compliance with regulatory agency requirements, design/inspection of public works projects, review/oversight of private development projects, mapping and recordkeeping, and working in both office and outdoor construction site settings in all weather conditions.

A Bachelor's Degree in a civil/municipal engineering-related major from an ABET-accredited university is required. Must have passed the F.E. exam and possess Wisconsin EIT certification. Wisconsin P.E. certification desired but not a requirement at time of hire. Carlson AutoCAD, e-mail, word processing and spreadsheet skill are required. Possession of and maintenance of a valid unencumbered Wisconsin driver's license is required.

Salary DOQ ($54,783 to $67,394) with excellent benefits. Submit resumes, references and salary history to:

John Laning, P.E., Village Engineer
Village of Germantown
P.O. Box 337, Germantown, WI 53022-0337

Application Deadline: Until Filled. EOE